

Please leave the "no call" laws as they are. If we canceled our service with a company why would we want to hear from them begging for our business back for 18 more months??? Things have been working well as they are. Don't try to fix what isn't broke. Jim and Vicki K